Rome, March 3. The Pope has appointed Cardinal Guadagni to be Bishop of Frascati, in the room of the late Cardinal Bichi. Provisions have lately risen to such an extravagant Price in this City, on Occasion of the great Number of Foreign Nobility and others who are continually coming hither, that the common People begin to murmur very much.

Florence, March 6. On the 4th Instant the Turkish Ambassador, who arrived here some Days ago from Leghorn, set out from hence with all his Retinue for Vienna.

Prague, March 7. The famous Rabin, who has been confined for some Time past in this City, having been convicted of seducing several Country People to embrace the Jewish Religion, was this Morning sentenced by his Judges to be burnt alive.

Dresden, March 12. M. Petzold, our late Resident at the Court of Russia, is appointed to go in the same Quality to that of Vienna, in the room of M. Lautensach, who has obtained his Recall. We are assured that the King has changed his Sentiments with regard to the Journey he proposed taking to Leipzick, and that he will certainly set out for Poland immediately after Easter; which makes it believed, that the Affairs of that Kingdom require his Majesty's Presence rather more than was at first imagined; and 'tis now said, that the Affair of the State Prisoners will be decided before his Departure. An Edict has been published here, within these few Days past, by which all the Taxes of this Electorate are to be farmed out for a certain Number of Years to the highest Bidders. We learn from Dantzick, that the Bishop of Warmie was arrived there, in order to adjust the Differences which have subsisted for some Time past between the Magistrates and Inhabitants of that City.

Vienna, March 19. The Anniversary of the Birth of the Archduke Joseph, their Imperial Majesties eldest Son, will be celebrated at Court To-morrow with great Magnificence; on which Occasion Fifty-nine Noblemen will be declared Lords of the Bed-Chamber. S.* On Saturday laſt the 21ſt Inſtant, M. de Boetzlaer and the other Commiſſaries appointed by the States of Holland to examine into the Methods by which the new Regulations relating to the Taxes have been carried on in the ſeveral Parts of the Province, and to hear and redreſs Grievances upon that Head, left this Place on their Journey to Amſterdam, where they enter upon Buſineſs according to their Inſtructions, and will from thence continue their Progreſs through the other conſiderable Towns of Holland, in Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion. There is another Commiſſion likewiſe iſſued out, appointing M. de Catwyk, with ſome other Deputies of the States, to examine the State of the Finances of the Province, and to make their Report accordingly to the Prince Stadtholder. His Serene Highneſs is at preſent much engaged in ſettling the new Commiſſions of ſeveral Deputies of the different Provinces to the States General, particularly thoſe of Guelderland and Overyſſel. In the latter M. de Rechteren has been diſplaced, and M. de Palland appointed to ſucceed him in his Office. It is ſaid, that the Prince of Orange has an Intention of going to Grave ſome Time next Month, in order to meet and confer with Prince Charles of Lorrain, before his Royal Highneſs's Departure for Vienna. Admiral Schryver is lately returned here from Flushing in Zealand, where he has been employed in taking a Survey of the Dock, in order to lay before his Serene Highneſs a Plan for enlarging and making it more commodious for the Reception of Ships of War, the Neceſſity of which was particularly felt during the late War, when the Engliſh Fleet lay off that Coaſt. He has made his Report hereupon to the Prince, and it is thought a large Sum of Money will ſoon be negociated for the Execution of this Deſign. Several Military Promotions have been made here within theſe few Days, and many Officers, who have ſome Time ago been taken into the Pay of the States, have been aſſigned to their proper Regiments.
